All readings for the Epistle appear in the bulletin the week before and are official.

You are responsible for the Thanksgiving Prayer after communion.

Reading is a Ministry of the Church and should be accomplished with care and preparation.

Gentle reminder: Readers are encouraged to take communion on the day they read the epistle. However, if this is not possible, that Reader should not be reading the Prayer of Thanksgiving following Communion. Should this occur, please hand off the Prayer of Thanksgiving to another Reader who has taken Communion.
